

$2,893,731.90 DEBTS NO CERTAIN ASSETS

ADOLPH SEGAL, BANKRUPT, HAS ONLY PERSONAL EFFECTS
VALUED AT $150.

Figured in Big Sugar Refinery Scandal
Which Caused President of a Large Trust Company to Take Own Life.

Philadelphia, March 4.—A schedule of the liabilities and assets of Adolph Segal, former president of the Majestic Apartment House Co., and recently adjudged an involuntary bankrupt by the United States district court, shows debts amounting to $2,893,731.90 with no certain assets, except some wearing apparel, a watch, spectacle case and gold pencil, valued in all at $150.

Unless some tangible assets of a more substantial nature can be found, there will be nothing to distribute among the bankrupt's creditors, as he is entitled to an exemption of $300 under the law.

Segal figured in the big sugar refinery scandal several years ago when the president of one of this city's largest trust companies committed suicide as the result of his alleged connection with the affair.

Segal recently was involved with capitalists from Cleveland in a contest for control of the hotel.

The schedule filed with the clerk of the district court shows secured claims amounting to $1,771,093.12 and the unsecured claims of $1,122,638.77.

The securities Segal gave to his creditors were bonds of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Co., bonds of the United States Lead Co., first and second mortgage bonds of the Majestic Apartment House Co., bonds of the Peerless Match Co., stock of the Majestic company, stock of the West Jersey Tube Works and bonds of the Standard Mining Co.

Segal began to contract some of his present debts 25 years ago, and, according to the schedule, he owes money for services and cash advances contracted within recent months.

HIT CHINESE LAUNDRIES

OHIO STATE ASSOCIATION DE-CLARES THEM UNSANITARY AND UNDESIRABLE.

Toledo, O., March 4.—On the theory that Chinese laundries are unsanitary and undesirable in any community, members of the Ohio Laundrymen's association propose to have Ohio rid of Chinese laundries through legislative enactment. The state association will be assisted by the National Laundrymen's association. This practically was the sole topic of the business meeting of the Ohio Laundrymen's association, which has just closed. The laundrymen decided to meet next year in Dayton.

The annual election resulted: President, O. W. Holmes, Toledo; first vice president, S. R. Myers, Youngstown; second vice president, Charles Seltz, Dayton; treasurer, James B. Hill, East Liverpool; secretary, Charles P. Leininger, Cleveland, re-elected.

PET CANINE ROUTS A MAN WHO ATTACKS WOMAN IN A CITY PARK.

Canton, O., March 4.—A pet dog saved Mrs. Marie Koehnlein, 27, when she was attacked by a man while passing through Nimble park, according to a report to the police. Her assailant was frightened away by the attack of the dog.

Mrs. Koehnlein was on her way home when she saw the man coming. When they met the man, without warning, threw his arms around her. Screaming and struggling to free herself, Mrs. Koehnlein was thrown to the ground. Her dog flew at the man, who ceased his attack and fled.

The boys said they entered the store just before closing time and hid in a closet. After the clerks had left they crept out, ate all the candy they could and filled their pockets. They found all doors locked and broke a window in the rear, opposite the patrol room of the Safety building.

The Forty Year Test.
An article must have exceptional merit to survive for a period of forty years. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was first offered to the public in 1874. From a small beginning it has grown in favor and popularity until it has attained a world wide reputation. You will find nothing better for a cough or cold. Try it and you will understand why it is a favorite after a period of more than forty years. It not only gives relief—it cures. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

POLICEWOMEN REMOVED

FOUND TO BE A FAILURE AT HANDLING DISORDERLY PER-SONS OF OWN SEX.

Chicago, March 4.—Policewomen were decided here to be a failure at handling disorderly persons of their own sex. It was simply a matter of lack of physical strength, coupled with the inordinate curiosity of on-lookers, according to Chief of Police Gleason, who removed the women police who have been attempting to handle the waitresses' boycott of a downtown restaurant. Men are doing duty there now. It was shown women will strenuously resist being arrested by a sister in uniform.

THE GOLDEN SIDE.

(Mrs. M. A. Kidder.)

There is many a rest in the road of life.

If we only would stop to make it;

And many a tone from the better land

If the querulous heart would take it.

To the sunny soul, that is full of hope,

And whose beautiful trust ne'er fail-

eth.

The grass is green and the flowers are light.

Though the wintry storm prevaileth.

Better to hope, though the clouds hang

low,

And to keep the eyes still lifted,

For the sweet blue sky will soon peep

through.

When the emulous clouds are rifted

There was never a night without a day.

Or an evening without a morning.

And the darkest hour, as the proverb

goes,

Is the hour before the dawning.

There is many a gem in the path of life.

Which we pass in our idle pleasure,

That is richer far than the jeweled

crowns.

Or the miser's hoarded treasure;

It may be the love of a little child,

Or a mother's prayer to Heaven.

Or only a beggar's grateful thanks

For a cup of water given.

Better to weave in the web of life

A bright and golden filling,

And to do God's will with a ready

heart,

And hands that are swift and willing.

Than to snap the delicate, minute

threads

Of our curious lives asunder.

And then blame Heaven for the tangled ends,

And sit and grieve and wonder.

Wouldn't any woman be happy,

After years of backache suffering,

Days of misery, nights of unrest,

The distress of urinary troubles,

Mrs. John Forsyth, 1121 Emma St.,

a great deal from a weak back. I had a constant pain across my kidneys,

which was more severe at night when

up in the morning feeling tired and blue. My head ached a great deal and

I felt bad all over. One of the family had used Doan's Kidney Pills and had such good results that I decided to
